Summary

This week I have done something. In the beginning of this week, I just read papers as I used to do in last week. Because I have read some papers, my reading speed have an improvement. In Thursday, I attend the meeting of Net-ease programe. Then I was distributed a task. I was going to think a problem of the program. It' s about how commodity trends. We have a meeting in Friday night. Then we have a interview for the applier with this program. And I also prepared for my presentation next week.

To do List

I will read papers like before and join the program of Net-ease.
